Mr., Mrs. L. Hogan Presentation Tea Wed Fifty Years For KGH Graduates

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hogan, of RR 3, Collins Bay, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary recently. To mark the occasion they were "at home" to a few of their close friends and relatives.

Mrs. Hilda Sands presided at the tea table during the afternoon and Mrs. Roy Graham and Mrs. George Warren poured tea in the evening. The couple's daughter, Mrs. Leonard Morrow and two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Howard Hogan and Mrs. William Hogan looked after the guests. Baskets of golden snapdragons and 'mums decorated the dining room, and the tea table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by tapers in crystal holders.

Mr. and Mrs. Hogan were married in 1909, Mrs. Hogan being the former Miss Edith Trousdale. During the past fifty years they have lived in this district, first at Sydenham and then at Collins Bay. They have three sons and one daughter — Howard, William, both of Collins Bay, John of the RCAF in Calgary, Alta., and Wilda (Mrs. Leonard Morrow) of Picton. There are four grandchildren.

The couple was showered with messages and tokens of goodwill on the anniversary. Mrs. Hogan's sister, Mrs. Samuel Ashwin, of Harrowsmith, and old friends Mr. and Mrs. George Warren of Newboro were present at the celebrations.

The 65 nurses of the Kingston General Hospital graduating class were entertained by the Women's Aid of KGH, yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Davis, 165 King street west. The affair was the annual "Cuff Link Tea", at which each of the graduates is presented with a pair of cuff links, gift of the WA.

Members of the WA executive and mothers of the graduates had been invited, and they were met at the door by Mrs. Davis, the hostess, and Mrs. W. Malcolm Brown, the president.

The presentation ceremony was informal and friendly, with Mrs. Brown welcoming the girls and introducing Mrs. W. A. Campbell who made the presentations, assisted by Miss Hazel Miller, Superintendent of Nurses. In a gay, brief speech, Mrs. Campbell told the graduates about some of the work the Women's Aid tries to do for the hospital, not because the members are "a lot of rich women who have nothing else to do", but because they feel the hospital needs them, and they like to be of help. She hoped the girls would accept their cuff-links with appreciation, and that they would remain loyal to their KGH school of nursing.

This year's cuff-links are dainty ones, of sterling silver, the fronts bearing the KGH crest and the backs enamelled in the hospital colors of

DIED IN N. Y. STATE

Former Sydenham Man Had Lived There Many Years

William Trousdale, aged 62 years, formerly of Sydenham, Ont., died at his home in Barneveld, N.Y., on Tuesday. Prayers were said at the home on Friday morning at 8.30 o'clock, after which the body was sent to Dexter, where the funeral was held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Wilder, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The body was placed in the Dexter vault. Services at the vault were by Chaumont lodge, No. 172, F. and A.M.

Mr. Trousdale was born in Sydenham, Canada, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Trousdale. He was a baker and went to New York State when a young man. For several years he conducted a bakery in the Jones opera house building in Dexter. He moved to Barneveld several years ago.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mae Trousdale; one son, William E. Trousdale, of Baldwinsville; two daughters, Mrs. Charles Wilder, of Dexter, and Mrs. Myron Beebee, of Alexandria Bay; six grandchildren and four greatgrandchildren, one brother, James T. Trousdale, of Harrowsmith, Canada, and a number of nephews, and a niece, Mrs. L. Hogan, Sydenham.
